

ROLE PROFILE

Job Title: Generic Specialist Practitioner - Respiratory

CAJE ID: NM.0098

Band: 6

Accountable To: Lead Clinical Nurse Specialist/Advanced Physiotherapy Practitioner

Reports To: Lead Clinical Nurse Specialist/Advanced Physiotherapy Practitioner

Job Purpose

- Work as a Generic Specialist Practitioner as part of a multi-disciplinary healthcare team within the Respiratory Virtual Ward.
- Undertake clinical assessment and review of patients via telephone, video call, or face to face in their own homes.
- Review and monitor patients using DOCCLA remote monitoring systems
- Liaise closely with colleagues across the service to ensure continuity and quality of care.
- Report to the Interface Service Manager and participate in relevant working groups to support service improvement and enhanced patient outcome
- Car Driver essential

Additional Information Specific to the Role

- Monday to Sunday 8am – 6pm
- Based within NHSL Headquarters at Kirklands Hospital but manage patients across NHSL, including visiting them at their home
- Ability to formulate clinical management plan within scope of practice, or escalate as appropriate

- Clinical Assessment and Non-Medical Prescribing level 10 essential, (but study time will be supported for staff who currently do not possess this at present, but commitment to study and complete must be agreed to at interview)
- Demonstrates excellent leadership, decision making, and patient centred care skills.
- Ability to work collaboratively within an MDT and interface effectively with GP and other colleagues.
- Virtual/remote healthcare experience desirable but not essential.