Section 2: Introduction to Appointment

Job Title: Specialty Doctor

Department: Haematology

Base: Western General Hospital

You may also be required to work at any of NHS Lothian sites.

Post Summary:

Applications are invited from registered medical practitioners for the post of speciality grade doctor in Haematology and at the Western General Hospital (WGH). The appointment will be 10 PAs (1 WTE) and will be based at WGH.

The post holder will be part of the multidisciplinary team based in the Haematology day ward at Western General Hospital. The primary responsibilities of the post include prescribing of outpatient systemic anticancer treatment, clinical review of patients attending the day ward and performing procedures such as bone marrow biopsy and administration of intrathecal chemotherapy

Section 3: Departmental and Directorate Information

Western General Hospital, Edinburgh.

3.1 Clinical and Laboratory Haematology Services: WGH

The Clinical Haematology Department is part of Edinburgh Cancer Centre. Edinburgh Cancer Centre is a rapidly expanding specialist centre, with a major focus on cancer research and innovation. The Centre provides a wide range of local, regional and national services across 11 sites in South East Scotland.

Edinburgh Cancer Centre is based at the Western General Hospital (WGH), which is a rapidly developing academic health science cancer campus. The University of Edinburgh's Institute for Genetics and Molecular Medicine and the CRUK Edinburgh Centre are co-located on this shared campus.

The Haematology Department at the Western General Hospital provides general haematology services for the northern and western areas of Edinburgh. Regional services for patients with haematological malignancies are provided for Midlothian, East Lothian and West Lothian. Supraregional services for autologous haematopoietic stem transplants around 60 per year are provided for the Lothians, Fife, Borders and Highland regions. CART treatment delivery is anticipated to commence in 2023. Clinical haematology services are provided in facilities which underwent major refurbishment and opened in September 2021. The magnificent, state-of-the-art facilities include a 19-bed (all single occupancy) ward with a brand new co-located 30 chair/room day ward. A Southeast Scotland managed clinical network for haematological malignancies is well established.

There are currently eight consultants supporting the clinical and diagnostic haematology service, with seven working in three teams – “myeloid”, “lymphoid” and “myeloproliferative neoplasms – MPN” with cross-cover arranged within teams. One consultant supports the regional transplant service as well as early phase trials. There is clinical nurse specialist support for patients with lymphoid, myeloid and myeloproliferative malignancy as well as for stem cell transplant.

The Department is led by Dr Huw Roddie, Clinical Director for Adult Haematology Services. The General Manager of Edinburgh Cancer Centre is Lyndsay Cameron and the Associate Medical Director is Dr Colette Reid.

3.2 Haematology Research facilities

There is a dedicated research team for the haematology oncology service that comprises 3 research nurses and 2 data managers. There is a clinical trials pharmacy team that supports both the Haematology and Oncology trials activity. There is also a pharmacist who has a dedicated role relating to advanced therapeutics. Most clinical trials activity takes place within the outpatient, day ward and inpatient wards at the Western General hospital. Trials activity is also undertaken at the outpatient and day ward at the St John’s Hospital. There is access to the Phase 1 clinical trials unit within the Edinburgh Cancer centre and the Wellcome Trust Clinical Research Facility based at the Western General Hospital.

3.3 Haematology Laboratory Service: WGH

The Haematology Laboratory Service provides district and supra-regional services. There is close liaison with general practitioners in north and west Edinburgh. Supra-regional services for Lothians, Fife and Borders include immunophenotyping and molecular diagnostics. The regional cytogenetics laboratory is on the WGH site.

Section 4: Main Duties and Responsibilities

Clinical:

- The post holder will be expected to provide clinical leadership to the ward 7 multidisciplinary team.
- The post holder will be expected to prescribe Systemic Anticancer Therapy
- The post holder will be responsible for the clinical care of patients undergoing treatment in the Haematology Day ward. This includes patients receiving SACT, supportive therapies and stem cell transplants
- The post holder will be expected to perform specialist procedures include bone marrow biopsy and administration of intrathecal chemotherapy
- The postholder is expected to participate in the care of patients who are enrolled in clinical trials and to undertake specific trial related duties
- Dependent on interest and service need the post holder may be asked to undertake one outpatient clinic per week

Section 6: Working for NHS Lothian

Working in Edinburgh and the Lothians

Who are we?

NHS Lothian is an integrated teaching NHS Board in Scotland providing primary, community, mental health and hospital services. Calum Campbell is the Chief Executive, Professor John Connaghan CBE is the Chair and Tracey Gillies is the Executive Medical Director.

NHS Lothian provides services for the second largest residential population in Scotland – circa 850,000 people. We employ approximately 26,000 staff and are committed to improving all patient care and services and engaging staff in service planning and modernisation.

Over the next year across Scotland there will be significant changes in the way health and social care services are provided. In April 2015, integration came into effect in local areas led by four Health and Social Care Partnerships in East Lothian, Edinburgh, Midlothian and West Lothian. Working together will help us provide even better services for our communities and, where appropriate, people will receive high quality care closer to home. There is work underway in relation to the operational and governance capacity required, ensuring that planning for unscheduled and scheduled care is done in tandem between the four Integrated Joint Boards and the acute service.

Further information about Edinburgh and NHS Lothian can be found at <https://org.nhslothian.scot/Pages/default.aspx>

Location

Edinburgh and the Lothians are on the eastern side of Scotland's central belt in the heart of the country. Four main areas make up Edinburgh and the Lothians – Edinburgh, East Lothian, Mid Lothian and West Lothian.

Edinburgh and the Lothians are a place of exceptional beauty and contrast, from Edinburgh's historic skyline to the scenic countryside and coastline that surround it. Edinburgh is famous for its castle, military tattoo, fringe and international festival.

Edinburgh and the Lothians are home to top-ranking state and private schools and world class universities and colleges. Edinburgh offers a rich diversity of parks and gardens to spend time relaxing with friends and family. Whether you want to buy or rent Lothian also offers a diversity of accommodation ranging from city centre based flats, waterfront living, Victorian or Georgian villas to more rural farm houses or coastal homes.

Local and wider transport networks are excellent. Glasgow is less than 50 minutes away by train. The Scottish Highlands are accessible in a few hours offering opportunities for skiing and walking. National and international transport links make it easy to keep in touch with friends and family via Edinburgh Airport which offers a variety of international flight opportunities.

If you are thinking about joining us from overseas further information can be found at www.talentscotland.com. For a comprehensive list of services to help moving to the City of Edinburgh, please visit the City of Edinburgh Council Website at: www.edinburgh.gov.uk.

<http://careers.nhslothian.scot.nhs.uk>

What we can offer you

Working with NHS Lothian offers a variety of opportunities and benefits:

- Access to the NHS pension scheme
- Assistance relocating to Edinburgh
- NHS Lothian is an equal opportunities employer and promotes work-life balance and family-friendly policies
- A beautiful setting to live and work and to take time out after a busy day or week
- Access to a transport network offering easy travel links to the rest of the UK and Europe, as well as international options

Teaching and Training Opportunities

NHS Lothian has one of the largest and some of the most successful teaching hospitals in Scotland. We have a growing national and international reputation for medical teaching and research and are recognised as a centre of excellence.

We successfully train medics, nurses and other healthcare professionals from all over the UK and the world, many of whom choose to remain in employment with NHS Lothian and continue to contribute to the development of the organisation, promoting new techniques and going on to train the doctors, surgeons and nurses of tomorrow.

NHS Education for Scotland (NES) and NHS Lothian recruits junior medical staff both UK and worldwide. We are committed to providing a high standard of medical education and are able to offer training in a variety of specialties at foundation and specialty level, with the majority of training posts in the South East of Scotland rotating through Edinburgh and Lothian hospitals.

Information regarding training with links to the appropriate UK websites can be found at <http://www.scotmt.scot.nhs.uk/> and <http://nes.scot.nhs.uk/>

We enjoy close links with the University of Edinburgh (<http://www.ed.ac.uk/home>) whose Medical School is renowned for preparing its medical students to become world-class doctors. Alongside NHS Lothian, the University of Edinburgh offers state-of-the-art medical teaching facilities at the Chancellors Building, including lecture theatres, seminar rooms, clinical skills training area, computing suites, as well as library facilities at the main university, Western General Hospital and Royal Hospital for Sick Children.

Our vision, values and strategic aims

We strive to provide high quality, safe, effective and person centred healthcare, continually improving clinical outcomes for patients who use our services and for our population as a whole.

To achieve this, we are committed to ever-closer integrated working with patients and our other partners in healthcare and to embedding a culture of continuous improvement to ensure that:

- Our staff can contribute fully to achieving the best possible health and healthcare, based on evidence and best practice
- Everything we do maximises efficiency and delivers value for patients and the public

We have identified six strategic aims to ensure we can deliver safe, effective and person-centred health and social care:

1. Prioritise prevention, reduce inequalities and promote longer healthier lives for all
2. Put in place robust systems to deliver the best model of integrated care for our population – across primary, secondary and social care
3. Ensure that care is evidence-based, incorporates best practice and fosters innovation, and achieves seamless and sustainable care pathways for patients
4. Design our healthcare systems to reliably and efficiently deliver the right care at the right time in the most appropriate setting
5. Involve patients and carers as equal partners, enabling individuals to manage their own health and wellbeing and that of their families
6. Use the resources we have – skilled people, technology, buildings and equipment – efficiently and effectively.

The specific areas of focus and actions needed to achieve each of these aims are detailed in “Our Health, our Future: NHS Lothian Strategic Clinical Framework 2014 – 2024,” consultation document which you will find at: <https://org.nhslothian.scot/Strategies/Pages/default.aspx>

Our Health, Our Care, Our Future

NHS Lothian works to help people live healthier, longer lives – no matter who they are or where in the region they live. Much progress has been made, but significant challenges and opportunities lie ahead. NHS Lothian draft strategic plan - Our Health, Our Care, Our Future – sets out what we propose to do over the coming decade to address these challenges and continue to provide a high quality, sustainable healthcare system for the people of Lothian.

In developing the strategic plan we have:

- asked staff and patients what and how things need to change to deliver our aims
- brought together local plans into an integrated whole
- identified opportunities to make better use of existing resources and facilities
- prioritised areas that will make most difference to patients

The plan outlines a range of proposals, which will allow us to:

- improve the quality of care
- improve the health of the population
- provide better value and financial sustainability

Over the coming months we will discuss the need for change and the proposals set out in the plan with staff, patients, communities and other stakeholders. A summary of the plan can be found at

<https://org.nhslothian.scot/Strategies/OurHealthOurCareOurFuture/Pages/default.aspx>

NHS Lothian's Clinical Quality Approach – Quality Driving Improvement

This is a new way of approaching quality in NHS Lothian. With this approach to service improvement we aim to deliver 'high quality, safe and person-centered care at the most affordable cost'. This acknowledges that every £1million of waste, unnecessary or inappropriate costs in one area of our system, denies us the opportunity to invest that £1million in another area of our system.

In all highly reliable healthcare organisations, it is clear that senior leadership commitment to the importance of the work, the introduction of consistent improvement methodology, the use of good quality data and building improvement capability within the workforce, are key to the successful delivery of improvement strategies.

To allow NHS Lothian to meet the needs of our population today and in the future, we need to build on the good work that is already being done to redesign services and create a whole organisation approach to quality improvement.

Our Values and ways of working

NHS Lothian is determined to improve the way their staff work so they have developed a set of common values and ways of working which they now need to turn into everyday reality - to the benefit of everyone working in the organisation and, most importantly, to the benefit of their patients.

<http://careers.nhslothian.scot.nhs.uk>

NHS Lothian – Our Values into Action:

Care and Compassion

- We will demonstrate our compassion and caring through our actions and words
- We will take time to ensure each person feels listened to, secure, understood and is treated compassionately
- We will be visible, approachable and contribute to creating a calm and friendly atmosphere
- We will provide a safe and caring setting for patients and staff, and an efficient, effective and seamless care experience
- We will meet people's needs for information and involvement in all care, treatment and support decisions.

Dignity and Respect

- We will be polite and courteous in our communications and actions
- We will demonstrate respect for dignity, choice, privacy and confidentiality
- We will recognise and value uniqueness and diversity
- We will be sincere, honest and constructive in giving, and open to receiving, feedback
- We will maintain a professional attitude and appearance.

Quality

- We will demonstrate a commitment to doing our best
- We will encourage and explore ideas for improvement and innovation
- We will seek out opportunities to enhance our skills and expertise
- We will work together to achieve high quality services
- We will use our knowledge and enthusiasm to implement positive change and overcome challenges.

Teamwork

- We will understand and value each other's role and contribution
- We will be fair, thoughtful, welcoming and kind to colleagues
- We will offer support, advice and encouragement to others
- We will maximise each other's potential and contribution through shared learning and development
- We will recognise, share and celebrate our successes, big and small.

Openness, Honesty and Responsibility

- We will build trust by displaying transparency and doing what we say we will do
- We will commit to doing what is right – even when challenged
- We will welcome feedback as a means of informing improvements
- We will use our resources and each other's time efficiently and wisely
- We will maintain and enhance public confidence in our service
- We will be a positive role model.

Throughout the recruitment process candidates will need to demonstrate they meet all of Our Values.

Further information on our values into action can be found at
